Ref.No.SAC/ALD/29/2021-27

Dated: 21 April 2021

Notice Closure of Colleges due to Rising COVID Cases

Dear Professors, Staffs and Students,

In accordance with the government notification No.EDN.7/2021/49 dated 21st April 2021 declaring the closure of colleges with immediate effect till 3rd May 2021 due to rising COVID cases, the College shall remain closed accordingly till further government notification.

Classes will continue to be held through online mode which will include assignments, tests and other activities as decided by the departments.

Teachers who wish to make use of the college internet facilities and departmental computers and laptops at the campus to create and transmit online lessons and content are to contact the Principal to obtain his permission to do so.

The Library and the non-teaching staffs will function at 50% capacity. The details of the shifts and work allocation will be given by the Principal at the earliest.

All are advised to observe precautions and follow the COVID 19 SOP fully. May God bless and keep one and all safe and secure throughout this hour pandemic period.

Sincerely,

Rev. Br. Dr. Albert L. Dkhar,
Principal
